Customer Reviews

No matter where you live or how old you are, if you're considering your acting life seriously, you need this book NOW. Every page is a gem. Oscar P.S : As I was about to post my review, I saw someone had given only 1 star to this most wonderful book. The only info we get from it is that this person hasn't read this new edition. Which gives me the opportunity to say two things :1. I read the previous edition as well. I loved it. But I was in awe as I read the 4th edition (like a novel | I just couldn't put the damn thing down), to see how much Bonnie Gillespie had literally rewritten a new book from scratch. Her writing is superb, alive, funny, enticing and yet, as she says, she killed her babies which requires a lot of courage. By doing so, she applied the very principles she gives : « clear the clutter! », « move on! ». This girl definitely practices what she preaches. Very inspiring. Which leads me to my second point.2. Bonnie Gillespie is a spiritual person. Highly spiritual. Whether she knows it or not. Her book is filled with sharing our toys, being open source, having the proper mindset, never taking it personally, enjoying the journey and loving, loving, loving : others, our craft, the audition process, where weâ™re at right now, L.A or wherever we live, our agent, our manager or the very fact of having none of them. Like any masterpiece, and I have no doubt this book will become THE reference for actors around the globe, Bonnieâ™s book goes way further than getting down to (show) business. Itâ™s a journey in itself. Youâ™re another person after youâ™ve read it. A better person. So, read it NOW to make sure you never end up reviewing a book you havenâ™t read. Otherwise, like this 1 star reviewer, youâ™ll become a 1 star actor.
